

INVITATION

JOIN IN

For the birthright of all children to their both parents

A worldwide project of musicians and artists

„father without son“

Dear friends,

some time ago, I wrote a little blue poem about childabduction and entitled it “father without son”.

Once a day then my friend Franz Romer and me talked about the issue, discussing what to do to attract more public attention to left behind parents and children, lost by childabduction after the separation of their parents and/or taken away by the power of the »Jugendamt« as legitimated regional protector of the youth and legal assistant of all German family courts.

My three sons musicians, me fond of singing all my life and Franz a drummer in a band ... it took no long way to the idea of bringing about a song of us, both for heart and ears.

Soon we decided to take my poem and start together with »Riff-the-Band« the adventure of a rock-song with elements of blues and funk.

Finally the first version is finished. Feel free to listen to it here:

<http://www.myspace.com/rifftheband>

As you' ve heard now, our song is not the very perfect one, yet. There are instruments to optimize, a male voice to add.

The last my son Dominik, a professional Jazz-singer, will do. To have a first impression of his music you may look and listen here:

<http://profile.myspace.com/index.cfm?fuseaction=user.viewProfile&friendID=349127573>

To show you our project in its stumbling, humbling growing is important to us, because we understand it not only ours.

This song is not only a project of me and »Riff-the-Band«, but it shall be a worldwide project as a campaign of musicians and artists, all acting together to make this little sad, angry and strong song a big one, powerful as an expression of withstanding against childabduction and for the right of all children to be with their own both parents.

That's why I invite you to join in and participate with your own instruments.

Either by voice or instrumental handcraft, you may add your personal playing in your own stream/wave, so that we can add it to our version.

Alternatively you may present our song during your own sessions and gigs.

You are free to play it where ever you want without paying us for using it. Be aware, this song is a charity-one. It is made for children suffering from the lost of their parents and vice versa. We don't think about profits with it at all.

You are also free to publish our song on your websites.

The only grant we ask you for is to respect our copyrights and to let us know, when and where you published it on websites, chats etc. (please set a link to the original place on my website and Riff-the-Band) and when and where you played it and – if possible - send us a (hand-made or professional) record of it.

We will publish all your interpretations of our song on our website, to show it' s way around the world and to give the suffering of separated parents and children a voice, this special voice of our song "father without son". A voice as loud and colorful as possible, together with you.

In addition to our song-project we start an invitation to all artists, to gather around us with pictures, sculptures, poems etc. The German-Italian painter, photographer and sculptor Marco Piono (Carrara/Berlin), an artist of high degrees, (www.karin-jaeckel.de/meinefavoriten/marcopiono.html) is the first who joined in with his sculpture of his new born baby, he was never allowed to see anymore because the mother did not agree. To kiss the little mouth of stone or bronze, is all she left to him.

So please send me in maximum three photos per person of your art-works on children and parents, too, so that we can add it to the music.

And, please forward this information and invitation to all the musicians and artists you know.

Knowing your interest by your eMail-message to me, I will send you all the intern informations you basically need to participate.

By the way, "father without son" does neither exclude any "mother without child" nor any daughter.

We know very well, that mothers are outranged of the lifes of their beloved children, too. And naturally the suffering from daughter is not less than the one of sons.

Expressively we stand by their sides, also.

Therefore our song is meant for fathers and mothers and all children worldwide.

With all my hopes and kindest greetings,
yours sincerely,

Karin

Dr. Karin Jäckel

Autorin + Journalistin

www.karin-jaeckel.de

Wenn die Klügeren immer nachgeben, regieren die Dummen (KJ)

If the intelligent always back down, the dumb will rule (KJ)